

Required Gas Registration

As of July 1, 2005 the City of Dyersburg Codes Department will require a registration in order to perform any new Gas Piping/Mechanical installations. Part of this registration requires you to answer a 30 question questionnaire.

You will be required to present a current business license, proof of liability insurance and workers compensation.